Tears fill my eyes as swift the boat flies
 And speeds me away so far from your shore
 As quiet you sleep in dreams that are sweet
 My dear island home Lismore.

Dawning would bring the lilt and the ring
 Of laughter at milking; music galore
 And high on the wing the mavis would sing
 Oh joy be with you, Lismore

Tears fill my eyes as swift the boat flies
 And speeds me away so far from your shore
 As quiet you sleep in dreams that are sweet
 My dear island home Lismore.

Gone are the days along the green braes
 Gone the warm hearts behind every door
 Now sadly I gaze, but ever I'll praise
 The isle of my heart Lismore.

Tears fill my eyes as swift the boat flies
 And speeds me away so far from your shore
 As quiet you sleep in dreams that are sweet
 My dear island home Lismore. My dear island home
 Lismore.
